

My Prayer for You! March 17th

First, I pray that Christ would allow you to see how He sees you. Fully free from the world and the spiritual and physical lusts of it.

Second, I pray that those who have been here and those who are out there will give themselves over to the full control of a life dedicated in service as Paul told us in Hebrews to present ourselves as a living sacrifice fully dedicated to living holy and acceptable for that is our reasonable service to God.

Third, my prayer for you is that you will experience God not in the doing, but in the being. Be in Him as Paul states over and over again. It's not in the doing that we are saved, but in being a transformed believer.

Fourth, may the power of God be released in your life to growth and maturity. May you continue growing in His Word and in His ways. May you be a light in dark places and a voice for God when hope is needed.

Fifth, may the light and life of Jesus Christ inhabit all the empty places in your life. May God produce in you good soul for planting and a great harvest of His love and Word to the world.

Sixth, I pray that you will begin to press into Him. That the closer He draws you the more you will understand His love and how it is for you and your family. Grow in the grace and knowledge of Jesus in your family unit and do not give into the voices in the world that try to draw you away from it.

Seventh, Stand...stand when the full battle is raging knowing that He who saved you will indeed cause you to come forth in victory. Walk...walk in the light of His presence wherever you go and do not turn left or right, but be as He is to you in this world. That is our destiny. To be as He is in this world.

Eighth, my prayer is for those who have been crushed or ravaged by the words and actions of men. That complete and total vindication will come to you and yours in all your days. That what was meant for evil, God will turn to good and you will stand in His presence victorious.

Ninth, I pray a simple prayer of protection around all that is yours. Protection on family members near or far. Protection on your homes and vehicles. Protection for your heart, when men speak evil against you. Provision for today, tomorrow and for the future, hope for today, tomorrow and the future and blessing for all times may that come to you.

Tenth, and finally; Let the peace of Jesus Christ rule and reign in your hearts. That you may be found in Him, loved in Him and safe in Him. That no weapon, no verbal or conventional means take you out of the will of God for your life going forward. These things I pray in the holy and matchless name of our Savior, Jesus Christ, Amen!
