

My Prayer for You

- I will continue to offer prayers for this “Body of Believers” and for you individually until the Holy Spirit tells me to stop. This evening, I am praying out of 2 Chronicles 20.

First, I pray tonight, according to the Word of God that nothing meant by the evil in this world to invade their minds, cause fear, anxiety or cause their hearts to faint will be cast aside by the power of the Word and the name of Jesus Christ.

Second, I pray that these children of God will gather together and seek Your face through fasting and prayer. That whatever would exalt itself against the Voice of God in their lives will be silenced and that their hearts will be strengthened to stand when the waves of enemy aggression came against them.

Third, I pray that even as they stand in the House of the Lord that they would encourage one another with Word and faith. Renew them with the knowledge that they are Your people and nothing that is formed, crafted, invented, or the like can remove them from being Your people.

Fourth, my prayer is that You would drive out of their minds, their lives and this house any thoughts of depression, oppression, suicide, revenge and gossip. We understand that gossip is a sin and Proverbs 16:28 states; “A perverse person spreads dissension, and a gossip separates the closest friends.” NET Brings us back to the basics of knowing You, trusting You and forgiving if we have been hurt.

Fifth, I pray that out of this House the name of Jesus Christ will be on our lips, in our minds, in our hearts and in every aspect of our coming in and going out. Rebuke the devourer on our account and let the grace and beauty of the risen Lord our Savior, Jesus Christ rule our thoughts tonight.

Sixth, I pray that the Spirit of God will have dominion over this House and inhabit every part of the words we say, what we hear and what we do, so that when He speaks, we will listen and respond. Let the Words of our mouths and the meditations of our hearts be acceptable that we might begin to experience You the way You want to be known in these last days.

Seventh, my prayer for these people is that even tho it may look like they are surrounded by unbelieving forces under enemy control, let us realize that no matter the circumstance, no matter the situation, no matter the depth, the height or the level of advance those forces may take, we have a God who brought down the walls of separation, built a gate in the middle of the fences of control and did it through the Son who gave us peace and life in its place.

Eighth, I pray that they will stand in the day of testing, whatever that looks like and that they will call out strong on the name of their deliverer Jesus Christ. That they will stand still and see His salvation in every area of their lives and begin to realize that God is for them and not against them.

Ninth, I pray that out of the innermost part of your being their will be a song. A song of triumph, sung as praise to the glory of God and to the praise of His majesty. That you will experience deep satisfying pleasure of being in His presence both day and night.

Finally, tenth, I pray that the favor of God will come over you and drip off of you so much that you will begin to say, “wait I don’t deserve this, where is it coming from?” That everywhere you turn, everywhere you walk, whatever you enter, the glory of God will shine through you and that people will be drawn to that glory and the favor that you have and you will be able to tell them that Jesus rules and reigns in your heart and that they will begin to say; “I want what you have.” Let it be so

Lord and let it be done in this house tonight in the name of the only begotten Son of God, the ransom for sin, the glory and the lifter of your heads in that mighty and matchless name the name above all names, in Jesus Christ we pray AMEN!
