

My Prayer for You! Feb 27

First, I want to thank You, Lord for this congregation, our friends on our streaming platforms and those who have been in here and have gone elsewhere. I pray that each member receives from You what they need and desire, but that it be something new that brings them into Your presence in greater awareness and strength.

Second, I pray that whatever has been planned against this people today by evil will be broken and thrown back into the very place of evil from whence it came.

Third, I pray that Your presence in this place would bring unity and peace and that the Lord rebuke all division, coercion, malice and envy in this church, in our homes and in us. Through fasting and prayer, we come into the unity of Christ as the members of His body, filled, sealed and delivered by the Holy Ghost in Jesus name.

Fourth, I pray that each heart and home represented here today be made pliable, soft and molded by the Spirit of God to love, to help and to witness.

Fifth, my prayer for each of you today is that our heavenly Father would take you and form you into the plan that He has for your life. That you would no longer exist to the world and its devices, but to the glory of God and His desire for you. That He prosper you with good health, with good report and in financial blessings that to this date have not come to you.

Sixth, I pray that in your blessing you will know the joy of giving out of a joyful heart, not grudging or of necessity, but out of the abundance that God gives both financially and in health.

Seventh, may your homes be blessed with love and compassion. May every person that walks through the threshold of your dwelling places be so overcome by the power of that love and compassion that they may never want to leave and when they do that, they will be so blessed to the point that they will take those very things home with them and be blessed just the same. This starts today in Jesus' name.

Eighth, my prayer is for your children and siblings. Since God is for us and not against us, may the climate amongst you and your children be ordained and controlled by peace, love and compassion. Let none of these sicknesses, disease, pestilence or lack be found in your descendants or elsewhere in your family line. The curse stops here!

Ninth, I pray that today is a new day for you. That what has happened in the past is just that...in the past. I pray that in this new day the new person or new man that you have become will be recreated. Not from the old man (person), but as a new man, (person) that as Graham Cooke once said; not that God would give you a make-over, but that He would recreate you and me from scratch. New in every way. That you think new, you talk new, you move new and you breathe new, and have that being in Him, so that the old man (person) is totally gone and a new man (person) has arrived. Out of that new man, new discoveries of God would be found every day. That you would grow to embrace every day as an opportunity to experience God fresh and new. That you would move and have your being in Jesus Christ.

Tenth, and finally, that no weapon formed against you and me would prosper in this life. That every purpose and calling be ordained and repurposed for the King, Jesus Christ. That you would find pleasure in serving and having a lasting relationship with Jesus Christ who has graced us with all spiritual blessings and that when we stand before Him in the last days that we will hear the words we all long to hear; "Well done good and faithful servant. Enter into your eternal rest. These things I pray in earnest, awaiting the day, when with the saints having gone before, we will see our glorious Savior face to face. There to be forever in that land beyond time with the glory and majesty of our Father God on display, it is for these things I pray in the mighty name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, AMEN!
