

My Prayer for You – March 13th 2022

First, I pray that each of you in this place and within the sound of my voice, those who have come and those who have left, that you would come into the fullness of Jesus Christ. That in His love and benevolence God would pour out on you His grace and care. I pray that you would in this Spring season witness the re-birth or coming to life of a dormant creation and that in it you will come to life again in your spirit and in your mind.

Second, I pray that you will find favor with God and man. Since God is the source of favor, my prayer for you is that you will be at peace and in right relationship with the One who has given you and me life and love. That you will walk in His light and be to the world a representative of that light among the dark places of this world.

Third, I pray that God will move you and me out of our comfort zone and into the places where we can do His work and be of service to Him. That you will see a few, and some many, come to Jesus as a result of your care and witness. May you walk strong and not be detoured on your path today, convinced as Paul said; that neither death nor life nor angels, nor principalities nor, things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, will be able to separate you from the love of God which we find in Christ Jesus our Lord.”

Fourth, my prayer for you is that the advance of the enemy in your life would come to a screeching halt and that no weapon formed against you will prosper. In the name of Jesus, you have no place here enemy and you can be dismissed in these lives and may joy and jubilee come to you as you stand in the freedom that Jesus has provided for you in this life.

Fifth, I pray that the financial elements of your life be of an a+ rating. That you will be the lender and not the borrower. That people will want to know how you achieved the reputation you have and want you to give them tips. In that, I pray that you will point them to the art of giving and receiving just as the early church gave and received for all its members.

Sixth, I pray that as each has received confidence through the blood of Jesus Christ that they can enter boldly that holy place of God. The place where by a new and living way according to Hebrews 10, and that through the veil of His flesh, as our great high priest over the house of God has drawn us near with a sincere heart in full assurance of faith having our hearts sprinkled clean and our bodies washed with pure water, so that no evil abides in us. I pray that they would hold fast to the confession of faith knowing that the One who has called them is also faithful.

Seventh, I pray today that the God of our faith would present Himself to you and that you would be as Paul stated to Timothy; diligent to present yourself approved to Him as a workman that need not be ashamed, accurately handling the Word of truth. That every detail and utterance that comes out of their mouths would be to the glory of God, to the family of God and to those who have no hope. That in your confession they would come to the saving knowledge of Jesus Christ at the appropriate time and that they would bear fruit that would remain.

Eighth, my prayer for them Father is that they would be clothed in the righteousness of Jesus Christ the redeemer of mankind and that they would be clothed as well in the armor of God. That they would be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might, realizing that the struggle is real and it's not against peers, but against rulers of this dark world and the forces that control it. Let them resist the devil and watch him flee. Let them give praise and watch it rise to the heavens into the presence of the almighty God. That they stand firm in this evil day with the total armor of God round about. Not running in retreat but advancing every moment of every day.

Ninth, I pray life to those dead dreams once they had. The one's where they saw You and knew that You gave them those dreams. May they not give up on them, but may the Spirit of God renew their inner most beings with Your presence and Your power. Let them laugh in the face of adversity, in Your name. May they sing the song that the Spirit has for them to sing and may they dance as David did when he had defeated tens of thousands. These are Your people, the sheep of Your pasture. May they find fresh Word in Your fields and safe lodging under Your wings of love and peace.

Tenth and finally, may the lie of the enemy that has hindered the children of God for so many years be exposed and put out of the House of God once and for all. My prayer is that in 2022 they will receive from You Lord everything that You have for them. That as the enemy is exposed and found to be a twister of the truth, that Your truth will rule their hearts and minds and will bring them to total truth in these last days. In conclusion Father, I submit all of these to Your control. I love them all and want the best for them, so make in them a glorious workmanship prepared for the final presentation of their souls at the rapture or in death. Thank you, Lord for these Your people. My heart felt prayer and deepest longing is to see You in all Your glory here in this place and on their lives. In the matchless and mighty name of Jesus Christ, I pray, AMEN!
