Prayer

I will be continuing my prayer for you as we go through the rest of this month and beyond that, if the Holy Spirit leads.

First, my prayer for you is that God will allow you to see Him fresh and new in this year.

Second, I believe that as we fast and pray, God will begin to reveal things to you, through His Word and in your time with Him that will change how you think and what you say.

Third, my prayer is that family members that have been estranged and out of touch will begin to come around again and will open up to you and receive the love of God and the Word will bring them back to God and to you.

Fourth, I believe that as you seek the Lord through the fast that you will gain greater awareness of the moving of the Holy Spirit and will step into it in great detail and observation.

Fifth, may faith arise in this house to the point that we will believe that nothing is impossible with God and that we will begin to see it evident in all of what God wants to do. Not what we want, but what He wants.

Sixth, I pray that everything that holds you back from the presence of God will be brought down and crushed under your feet. That Satan and his cohorts will be sent to where they belong and that you will experience breakthroughs you never thought possible.

Seventh, I pray that the thought of divorce, division and separation be cast out and that bills will be paid, healings will happen continuously and that people will be truly saved by the power of God inside and outside this house.

Eighth, I pray that as we worship in this House that a garment of praise will replace the spirit of heaviness that has come over the people of God and especially those still under the oppression, depression and anxiety of pandemics, wars and rumors of wars. We praise You heavenly Father for Your Word is coming about as we press toward the end times.

Ninth, I pray that this house of Worship return to its first love. That we worship in sincerity and strength of heart and in the Holy Spirit. Bind us together in a yoke of love and the bond of peace so great that we will be brought back to that first love who is Jesus Christ.

Tenth, finally, the Lord rebuke the devourer on your behalf, that whatever his plans are for your life that God has a greater plan that will be fulfilled in you to His glory. That the enemy will be and has been defeated in your life, that the glory of a resident God will shine through and that the world will know that the Lord, God abides in your house and in mine as well. All this I ask in the name which is above all names, in the name of Jesus Christ, at which the enemy, satan and his henchmen will flee and all sickness, from the smallest to largest ailments will have to submit. At whose name all the world will one day fall on their knees and proclaim He is God. In the name of Jesus, I pray, AMEN!
